4.9 Discipline.

A member who has gone through a disciplinary process with NMHNZ may, within 10 days of receiving written notification of the outcome of the disciplinary process, lodge a written appeal with the Executive Board Complaints Committee. The executive board may appoint a new complaints committee if it deems necessary, review the appeal, and will respond to the appeal within 60 days of receiving the written appeal. The member may be required to meet with the complaints committee to discuss the appeal and discipline. The outcome of this process will be shared with the Executive Board.

5. MEETINGS

- 5.1 An Annual General Meeting (AGM) of the Association shall be held within six months of the end of the financial year in every calendar year.
- 5.2 A Special General Meeting (SGM) may be convened at any time by the Secretary or the Chair under the direction of the Executive Board, and shall require a quorum representation from the board (25%) and membership (25%). Twenty-one (21) days' notice of any SGM shall be given to the Association's members by the Secretary and such notice shall specify the general nature of any business intended to be transacted. Such business may include, for example, after the recommendation of the Executive Board, any proposal to vary membership subscriptions.
- 5.3 At all AGMs and SGMs the Chair shall be taken by the Chairperson, or in their absence, by the Vice-Chairperson, or otherwise a Chairperson shall be nominated from members of the Executive Board, or another suitably qualified person (familiar with the Constitution of the Association) who is not a member, by the members present at the meeting.
 - 5.3.1 Following each AGM the Executive Board shall vote a Chair for the following twelve months. Such Chair will familiarise themselves with the constitution.
- 5.4 The voting at AGMs and SGMs shall be taken as the Chairperson shall direct, but any member present may demand a poll which shall be immediately taken in a manner determined by the Chairperson, and the result declared by the Chairperson. In case of equality of votes, the Chairperson shall have a second or casting vote.
- 5.5 The business of the AGM shall be:
 - 5.5.1 To receive the annual report of the Executive Board

- 5.5.2 To receive the duly reviewed annual statements of the income & expenditure and assets & liabilities of the Association.
- 5.5.3 To elect the Executive Board for the ensuing year.
- 5.5.4 Other business of which notice in writing has been given to the Secretary at least seven (7) days prior to the last day upon which notice of meetings may be given.
- 5.6 At each AGM the following regulations for the election of officers shall, unless and until varied at an AGM or SGM, apply:
- 5.6.1 Each of the members of the Executive Board may be nominated individually in writing or nominated from the floor at the AGM by at least two (2) financial members. Any such nomination must have the approval of the nominee.
- 5.6.2 Written nominations shall be in the hands of the Secretary at least seven (7) days before the commencement of the AGM. Nominations from the floor will be called from the floor by the Secretary before the election of officers takes place at the AGM.
- 5.7 If the term of the Executive Board is within 6.1.1 and 6.5.2, no voting for these roles is required at the AGM.
- 5.8 No business shall be transacted at any AGM or SGM unless a quorum of at least 25% representing the voting membership is present or represented by proxy.
- 5.9 If, within half an hour from the time appointed for the meeting, a quorum of members is not present, the meeting, if convened upon the requisition of members, shall be dissolved. In any other case, it shall stand adjourned to some convenient time and place to be determined by a majority of the members then present, and twenty-one (21) days' notice of the time, place and nature of business will be given to the Association members. If at such adjourned meeting a quorum of members as provided for in subclause 5.8 hereof is not present, the members then present shall constitute a quorum.
- 5.10 No member with voting rights shall be eligible to vote at any meeting either in person or by proxy unless they are a financial member. A member shall be deemed to be a financial member unless they are more than three (3) months in arrears with their subscription.
- 5.11 Subject to the foregoing provisions every member eligible to vote shall have one vote and no more, save that any person having been duly appointed to vote as a proxy by a financial member eligible to vote may record a vote for each member by whom they have been so appointed.
- 5.12 Votes may be recorded personally or by proxy, or if so arranged by a postal vote - Voting papers for anonymity. The form of proxy must be in the hands of the Secretary at the office of the Association twenty-four (24) hours before the meeting at which it is proposed to be used. Any instrument appointing a proxy shall be signed by the member making the appointment and if such member is a corporate body or organisation such instrument shall be signed for and on behalf thereof by any two (2) such as Chair, Manager, Secretary or a Director of such body or organisation. Such instrument appointing a proxy shall be in the following form or such other form as the Executive Board approves:
- I/We.....being a member of the Association
- hereby appoint.....as my/our proxy to vote for me/us and on
- my/our behalf at the AGM/SGM of the Association to be held on..... ..day of.....20.....
- Date.....Signature.....(Designation)
- 5.13 An email or online vote using an appropriate platform shall be used when every member of the Association shall vote. This will be arranged by the Executive Board and carried out with care. Reasons for voting will be explained and a date set for the votes to be received by the Secretary.

Votes will be marked off against membership to ensure one vote per member. Votes will be verified by two independent scrutineers who are not members.

6. OFFICERS

The officers of the Association shall be as follows:

6.1 A Chair.

6.1.1 The Chair will hold a 3 year term with the right to run again for another term, plus commits to staying on the board to support for at least a year after the role as Chair ends.

6.4.6 Do such other acts in relation to the affairs of the Association as from time to time the Executive Board or the chairperson of a meeting may require.

6.5 In addition to the above-mentioned officers, there shall be up to five more board members who comprise the Executive Board. From the elected board, the following roles are to be fulfilled:

- Political Convenor
- Education & Practice Convenor
- Research Convenor
- Events, Marketing & PR
- Culture & Diversity Convenor
- National Coordinator

6.5.1 Any person wishing to be nominated for executive positions on the Board must have been a full member for a minimum period of two years.

6.5.2 The term for the rest of the Executive Board is 2 years with unlimited rights to run.

6.6 The Executive Board, guided by the codes of practise, and ethics, shall adjudicate any complaints requiring discipline according to the rules of this Constitution.

6.7 The quorum for any Executive Board Meeting shall be 50% of its members.

7. THE COMMON SEAL

The Association shall have a Common Seal which shall remain in the custody of the Secretary and shall be affixed to such documents as the Executive Board shall by resolution decide, and in the presence of the Chair and the Secretary.

8. THE REGISTERED OFFICE

The Registered Office of the Association shall be at the residence of the current Secretary of the Association, or such other place as may be determined from time to time. Notice of every change of Registered Office shall be given by the Secretary to the Registrar of Incorporated Societies.

9. FINANCES

9.1 The Treasurer shall:

- 9.1.1 Bank or cause to be banked in the name of the Association, all monies received.
- 9.1.2 Disburse the funds of the Association, as may be determined by the Executive Board.
- 9.1.3 Keep the books of accounts of the Association and prepare the necessary financial accounts and statements.
- 9.1.4 Do such other acts as may be required from time to time upon a decision at an SGM or AGM.
- 9.1.5 The funds of the Association shall be banked in such bank or banks or other financial institutions in Aotearoa New Zealand as shall be directed at an SGM or AGM from time to time. All cheques, bills of exchange and other negotiable instruments for deposit in or to the credit of any bank account of the Association shall be signed or endorsed in such manner as shall be directed at an SGM or AGM from time to time.

9.2 The Association shall cause to be kept proper books of account in which shall be kept full, true and complete accounts of the affairs, assets and transactions of the Association.

9.3 The financial year of the Association shall be from 1st April to 31st March.

9.4 At the close of the financial year and at such other times as the Executive Board may elect, the Treasurer shall produce an income and expenditure account and a statement of assets and liabilities of the Association.

9.5 The Association shall deliver annually to the Registrar of Incorporated Societies (pursuant to Section 23 of the said Act) in such form and at such times as they require, a statement containing the following particulars:

- 9.5.1 The income and expenditure of the Association during the Association's last financial year.
- 9.5.2 The assets and liabilities of the Association at the close of the said year.
- 9.5.3 All mortgages, charges and securities of any description affecting any of the property of the Association at the close of the said year should there be any. The said statement shall be accompanied by a Certificate signed by the Secretary or in their absence by another officer of the Association authorised by the Executive Board to the effect that the statement has been submitted to and approved by the members of the Association at a general meeting.

9.6 The Association shall at each AGM vote upon whether they wish to appoint an auditor of the financial accounts of the Association, who shall be suitably qualified.

9.7 The financial records are available for perusal by members at any reasonable time. A full account will be provided to members at the AGM.

9.8 Any appointed chartered or registered accountant shall make a report to the members upon the accounts and statements aforesaid and in every such report they shall state whether in their opinion the same is or are full and fair accounts and statements containing the particulars required by the Constitution and rules of the Association and properly drawn up so as to exhibit a true and correct view of the affairs of the Association. Such a report shall be read together with the report of the Executive Board at the AGM.

9.9 If the revenue of the Association for any year shall not be sufficient to meet the expenditure for that year, the Executive Board may, pursuant to a resolution passed at a meeting of the Executive Board convened for that purpose, make a call or calls upon the members of the Association to meet such deficiency provided that no member shall be called upon in any one year to pay, pursuant to this provision, more than fifty per cent of that member's subscription for that year. Written notice of the making of such call or calls shall be deemed to be due and payable as from the date of the resolution passed by the Executive Board.

- 9.10 The Executive Board, subject to approval by a majority of members at an SGM, may from time to time for the purposes of the Association raise or borrow such sum or sums of money as it may think necessary or expedient, with or without security therefore, and may secure the payment of such sum or sums of any priority whatsoever belonging to the Association or by bonds, debentures, or other securities, or by bills of exchange, promissory notes or other negotiable instruments, and such borrowings shall be subject to such terms and conditions as the Executive Board shall approve.
- 9.11 The Executive Board may from time to time invest such monies of the Association. as are not immediately required by the Association in any form of investment authorised by law for the investment of trust funds.
